

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE EASTERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

RAUL UVALLES,

Plaintiff,

v.

KEVIN RUETER, et al.,

Defendants.

No. 2:23-cv-0160 DJC AC P

ORDER

Plaintiff has filed his second request for a ninety-day extension of time to file an amended complaint. ECF No. 14. The current deadline is February 20, 2024. ECF No. 13. In granting plaintiff's previous request for a ninety-day extension, the court cautioned that no further extensions of time would be granted absent a showing of extraordinary cause. Id. Plaintiff now asserts that he remains separated from his medical records and legal paperwork after being temporarily transferred to another facility for medical reasons, and is unsure when he will return to the prison where his property is being stored. ECF No. 14. Plaintiff still has over a month to file an amended complaint. However, in light of his current separation from his records, plaintiff's request will be partially granted. Plaintiff is advised that it is unnecessary to attach copies of his medical records to his amended complaint. He need only explain what he is alleging each defendant did or did not do that he believes violated his rights.

1 If plaintiff requires access to his medical records in order to refresh his memory so that he
2 may properly amend his complaint, he should contact appropriate staff at the prison about gaining
3 access to his property. If plaintiff remains unable to access his medical records and legal property
4 after making requests to the appropriate staff, he may file a motion seeking court assistance in
5 gaining access to his records. Any such motion should detail what steps plaintiff has taken to 6 gain access to his documents and the prison's response.

7 Accordingly, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that:

- 8 1. Plaintiff's motion for an extension of time (ECF No. 14) is GRANTED in part; and 9 2. Plaintiff is granted an additional thirty days, up to March 21, 2024, to file an amended 10 complaint.
